

Privacy Policy

Information that is gathered from visitors

In common with other websites, log files are stored on the web server saving details such as the visitor's IP address, browser type, referring page and time of visit.

Cookies may be used to remember visitor preferences when interacting with the website.

Where registration is required, the visitor's email and a username will be stored on the server.

How the Information is used

The information is used to enhance the visitor's experience when using the website or to display personalised content.

E-mail addresses will not be sold, rented or leased to 3rd parties.

E-mails may be sent to inform you of news of our services or offers by us.

Visitor Options

If you have chosen to subscribe (opt-in) to one of our services, or complete one of our online forms, we will store the personal data you supply securely and will not use your information for any other purpose than to provide you with the service requested and other information you may be interested in.

This information will not be sold, rented or leased to 3rd parties.

You may unsubscribe(opt-out) from these services at any time by visiting our contact page and requesting to unsubscribe via email.

Cookies

Cookies are small digital signature files that are stored by your web browser that allow your preferences to be recorded when visiting the website. Also they may be used to track your return visits to the website.

Cookies may be either "persistent" cookies or "session" cookies. A persistent cookie consists of a text file sent by a web server to a web browser, which will be stored by the browser and will remain valid until its set expiry date (unless deleted by the user before the expiry date). A session cookie, on the other hand, will expire at the end of the user session, when the web browser is closed.

We may use the information we obtain from your use of our cookies for the following purposes:

To recognise your computer when you visit our website.

To track you as you navigate our website.

To improve the website's usability.

We do not perform analysis, share or use any of the information provided by cookies other than for these purposes.

You may be able to block cookies via your browser settings but this may prevent you from access to certain features of the website and the website may not work as intended.

Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to analyse the use of this website. Google Analytics generates statistical and other information about website use by means of cookies, which are stored on users' computers.

The information generated relating to our website is used to create reports about the use of the website.

Google will store this information. Google's privacy policy is available at: <http://www.google.com/privacypolicy.html>.

You can opt out of being tracked by Google Analytics by visiting <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement.

If you have any questions about Cookies or this policy, please contact us.
